

Via All-Star Scholarship Application

As a Via-All Star, you are eligible to apply for one of two $2,000 scholarships to be awarded to participants in the Via All-Star Basketball Classic (All-Stars, 3 Point Contest participants and alternates are eligible). Scholarships will be presented to one boy and one girl scholar/athlete to be used for their continuing education. The announcement of the two winning recipients will be made at the Via All-Star Basketball Banquet on Wednesday, March 28, 2012 at Freedom High School.

Each candidate will be evaluated on his or her basketball achievements, academic achievements, extracurricular activities and citizenship. In order to be considered for the scholarship, you must submit the following information:

- Basketball statistics for your senior season should be noted on the enclosed basketball achievement sheet and signed by your coach. Please make note of information such as: other all-star team selections, milestones (1,000 points, MVP, etc.) and other achievements.
- Academic transcript from your high school, including your grade point average and class rank. This information will be kept confidential. Please use the enclosed academic achievement sheet and have it signed by your guidance counselor.
- Listing of extracurricular activities both in high school and outside school. This should include any organization memberships and officer positions you have held.

Application deadline is March 7, 2012.
