Via of the Lehigh Valley Welcomes New Board Members

BETHLEHEM, PA – Via of the Lehigh Valley is pleased to announce that its Board of Directors has elected two new members, Graig Schultz and Matthew McClinnis.

Schultz is an associate attorney with King, Spry, Herman, Freund & Faul, LLC, in Bethlehem. He received his Bachelor of Science degree from Penn State University and his law degree from Widener University School of Law.

“Diversity, equity, and inclusion are very important to me,” Schultz said. “I am excited to have the opportunity to serve on Via’s board and contribute to its mission for helping individuals with disabilities reach their full potential.”

McClinnis is the Senior Global Financial Reporting Analyst at Victaulic Company in Easton. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Accounting from Muhlenberg College.

“When the opportunity was presented before me to re-enter the nonprofit world as a board member at Via, my answer was a humble, yet emphatic, yes, because inclusion and community is their primary mission,” McClinnis said.

About Via of the Lehigh Valley
